CANTERBURY CHRIST CHURCH UNIVERSITY
ACCESS TO A RESEARCH DEGREE THESIS

Guidance for Candidates

1. The bound copy sent to the Library becomes the property of the University Library. The copyright in its contents remains with the candidate. A duplicated sheet is pasted into the front of every thesis deposited in the Library. The wording of the sheet is:

"I undertake not to use any matter contained in this thesis for publication in any form without the prior permission of the author or copyright holder."

Every reader of the thesis must sign and date this sheet.

2. The University has the right to publish the title of the thesis, the abstract and the table of contents and to authorise others to do so.
3. If access is to be restricted, a special case needs to be made to the Research Degrees Sub Committee. A Restricted Access form is available from the Graduate School.

In accordance with the Regulations, I hereby confirm that if successful in my submission I shall permit access to my thesis in the following ways:

- One bound copy to be sent to the Graduate School, for deposition in the Library.
- An electronic version on the Christ Church Institutional Repository (CReaTE) (pdf version to be sent to sheila.wraight@canterbury.ac.uk for this purpose). The Repository will be available to external users.
- The pdf copy will also be sent to the Library for deposition in the British Library Document Supply Centre.

CERTIFICATE ON SUBMISSION OF THESIS

I certify:

1. That I have read the University Degree Regulations under which this submission is made.
2. That in so far as the thesis involves any collaborative research, the extent of this collaboration has been clearly indicated; and that any material which has been previously presented and accepted for the award of an academic qualification at this University or elsewhere has also been clearly identified in the thesis.
